PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

Please read the following instructions carefully before completing any portion of this questionnaire. Please print your juror number in the space provided at the top of each page. Do not write your name on the questionnaire. Please answer each and every question fully. Some questions have more than one part.

YOU ARE SWORN TO GIVE TRUE AND COMPLETE ANSWERS TO ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE. This questionnaire is designed to help simplify and shorten the jury selection process. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether prospective jurors can decide this case impartially based upon the evidence presented at trial and the legal instructions given by the presiding judge. The questions are not intended to inquire unnecessarily into personal matters. Although some of the questions may appear to be of a personal nature, please understand that the Court and the parties must learn enough information about each juror's background and experiences to select a fair and impartial jury.

Please answer all questions to the best of your ability. If you do not know the answer to a question, then write, "I don't know." There are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only truthful answers. If you have strong feelings about this case in general, please do not hesitate to share them. Although you may be a perfectly good juror in another case, this may or may not be the right case for you to sit on as an impartial juror. Both parties have the right to get honest answers and to hear your true opinions. Do not discuss the case or your answers with anyone. It is important that the answers be yours alone. Remember, you are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions.

DO NOT DISCUSS YOUR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OR THE CASE WITH ANYONE, NOW OR UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTED BY THE COURT. You should not discuss the questions or answers with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers. More broadly, do not discuss the case with anyone, including the lawyers,

Commented [A1]: DEFENDANT OBJECTION: As discussed below, the defendant believes that background information on each juror should be included on this questionnaire, as the Government has proposed to do in the written questionnaire in each of the most recent high-profile trials.

Juror ID: _____

(except in the presence of the Court), your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Do not communicate about the case in any way, including telephone, e-mail, any social media app or website (such as Facebook), any communications app or website (such as Twitter). You must also avoid reading or hearing about the case (or anyone participating in the case) in newspapers, in magazines, on the radio or television, or on the Internet.

DO NOT DO YOUR OWN RESEARCH ON THE CASE. Do not conduct any research into the case (or anyone participating in the case) at any time before your entire jury service has been completed. That includes performing Internet searches, asking other people about the case, reading news stories, books, or reports about the case, or watching films or television programs that relate to the case. Do not read, watch, or listen to any information about this case.

If you believe that any of your answers contain private information that could embarrass you or otherwise seriously compromise your privacy and wish to request that the Court keep them confidential and not distribute them beyond the judge and counsel, you may indicate that on one of the blank pages at the end of this form. (Please identify the specific answer or answers that you believe should remain confidential.) After a jury has been selected, all copies of your responses to the questionnaire will be returned to the Court.

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The Court is selecting a jury for a trial commencing on Monday, November 29, 2021. Although it is never possible to predict the length of a trial, currently this trial is expected to last approximately [ ] weeks.

This is a criminal case. The defendant, Ghislaine Maxwell, has been charged in an indictment with various criminal offenses. The indictment is not evidence. It simply contains the charges—referred to as “counts”—that the Government intends to prove to the jury at trial beyond a reasonable doubt.

The charges in the Indictment stem from allegations that from at least 1994 through 2004, the defendant conspired with and aided and abetted Jeffrey Epstein to entice minors to travel to engage in criminal sexual activity, to transport minors to engage in criminal sexual activity and to engage in sex trafficking of a minor.

The Indictment charges the defendant in 6 counts: Count One of the Indictment charges the defendant with conspiring with Jeffrey Epstein and others to entice minors to travel to engage in sexual activity for which a person can be charged with a criminal offense. Count Two charges the defendant with enticing a minor to travel to engage in sexual activity for which a person can be charged with a criminal offense, and aiding and abetting the same. Count Three charges the defendant with conspiring with Epstein and others to transport minors to engage in sexual activity for which a person can be charged with a criminal offense. Count Four charges the defendant with transporting a minor to engage in sexual activity for which a person can be charged with a criminal offense, and aiding and abetting the same. Count Five charges the defendant with participating in a sex trafficking conspiracy. Count Six charges the defendant with sex trafficking of a minor, and aiding and abetting the same.

Commented [A2]: The parties will submit a joint letter to the Court on October 12, 2021 providing an estimate of the trial length.

Juror ID: _____

Ms. Maxwell has pled not guilty to all charges. Ms. Maxwell is presumed innocent, and before she can be found guilty on any charge, the jury must find that the Government has proven each element of that crime beyond a reasonable doubt.

Commented [A3]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The defendant has proposed the language in green color font in this questionnaire. The Government objects to the questions seeking personal information in this "Background" section. The Government does not believe these questions should be included in the written questionnaire, because these questions will not reveal any bias or otherwise provide a basis for a for-cause challenge, which the Government understands to be the purpose of the questionnaire, as a way to expedite jury selection. Rather, the Government submits that any background questions should be asked during the oral voir dire, along with biographical questions. Moreover, the Government objects to the level of detail in these background questions as unduly invasive of jurors and inconsistent with the Court's August 27, 2021 Order for a "streamlined questionnaire." (Dkt. 330). To the extent the Court includes background biographical questions in the written questionnaire, the Government proposes that they be limited in nature and number to avoid identifying potential jurors.

Commented [A4R3]: DEFENDANT: The defense proposes that these questions should be more appropriately asked in the questionnaire rather than voir dire. The Government objects but it was the Government, in the most recent high-profile federal cases, who included the very same background information questions in the written questionnaire. See United States v. Elizabeth Holmes (Theranos), 18 Cr. 258 (EDJ) (N.D. Cal.); United States v. Robert Kelly, 19 Cr. 286 (AMD) (EDNY); United States v. Keith Rainier (Nxivim), 18 Cr. 204 (NGG) (EDNY).

In addition to saving immense time, it provides a good-faith foundation for conducting research on the jurors to confirm truthfulness and/or uncover bias. In addition, the verdict in one of longest financial fraud trials in SDNY was overturned due to jury deceit. See United States v. Daugerdas, 867 F.Supp.2d 445 (SDNY 2012).

Commented [A5R3]: GOVERNMENT RESPONSE: As noted above, the Government does not believe these questions should be included in the written questionnaire, because these questions will not provide a basis for a for-cause challenge. The Government further submits that potential jurors should not write down their names on the written questionnaire. The defendant cites no case for the proposition that the defense has a right to an extended period of time to research potential jurors. That is not the law. "[T]he purpose of the voir dire is to ascertain disqualifications, not to afford individual analysis in depth to permit a party to choose a jury that fits into some mold that he believes appropriate for his case." United States v. Barnes, 604 F.2d 121, 138 (2d Cir. 1979) (citations omitted). "[S]o long as the court conducts a careful voir dire designed to uncover any bias as to the issues or the defendants," the defendants' rights are not infringed. United States v. Aulicino, 44 F.3d 1102, 1116 (2d Cir. 1995).

Do you have any strong views regarding people who have luxurious lifestyles?  Yes  No

Commented [A7]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to these questions as vague and duplicative, and not framed in a way that would provide a basis for a for-cause challenge.

Potential jurors will be called back for further questioning and jury selection from Tuesday, November 16, 2021 through Friday, November 19, 2021. The trial will commence on Monday, November 29, 2021. Generally, trial will be held five days per week, Monday through Friday, from 9:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. The Court will not sit on federal holidays, including on Christmas Day (Friday, December 24, 2021). The trial is expected to last about 1 weeks.

Commented [A8]: The parties will submit a joint letter to the Court on October 12, 2021 providing an estimate of the trial length.

If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to be present for the taking of testimony and evidence for as long as the trial lasts. There are no plans to sequester the jury, which means you will go home every day after court.

All jury service involves some degree of hardship. Our court and justice system depends on citizens doing their civic duty to serve as jurors which involves temporarily putting aside their regular business for jury service. The Court views service on a jury to be one of the highest duties a citizen owes to the United States. Mere inconvenience or the usual financial hardship of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror. You must show extraordinary personal or financial hardship to be excused from service.

Commented [A9]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to this question on the grounds that the question is duplicative of questions 6 and 7.

Commented [A10R9]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: There are a number of "plans" for the holidays that do not involve either travel or appointments, about which certain jurors may have strong opinions about missing.

Commented [A11]: The parties will submit a joint letter to the Court on October 12, 2021 providing an estimate of the trial length.

Commented [A12]: The defendant proposes the questions relating to COVID-19. The Government takes no position.

Commented [A13]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to the "Charges & Individuals Involved" section proposed by the defendant on the grounds that it is duplicative of the questions proposed by the Government. In particular, the first question is duplicative of questions above and is argumentative and inappropriate.

Commented [A14R13]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: The Government has not identified which questions they believe are duplicative. The first question, pertaining to the number of charges, does not appear to be duplicated in any Government-proposed question.

The Second Circuit has specifically approved discussion of the presumption of innocence in jury selection. See United States v. Velez-Vasquez, 116 F.3d 58, 61 (2d Cir. 1997) (upholding conviction where judge forgot to instruct on presumption of innocence in closing instructions where the concept had been discussed during voir dire).

Commented [A15]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to any references to the Southern District of Florida at this trial. The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida is not prosecuting this case. As the Government will address in a motion in limine, references to the USAO-SDFL are not appropriate at this trial.

Commented [A16]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government does not believe the questions in the "Experience with Legal System" section should be included in the written questionnaire, because these questions will not reveal any bias or otherwise provide a basis for a for-cause challenge. Rather, the Government submits that such questions should be asked during the oral voir dire.

Commented [A17R16]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: The defense believes that asking these questions on the questionnaire will save substantial amount of time and will allow the Court (and potentially parties) to follow up at the time of voir dire. Access to the information ahead of the voir dire will allow the Court to prepare to ask individual questions as necessary, some of which may best be asked outside the presence of other jurors (for example a prospective juror who previously had a negative experience as a juror).

Commented [A18]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to the "Media Issues" section proposed by the defendant on the grounds that it is not streamlined in accordance with the Court's Order. The Government submits that its proposed questions ask the jurors what is necessary on the subject but is not as unduly burdensome as the defendant's proposal. Many of the questions are vague, confusing, and argumentative.

Commented [A19R18]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: A critical purpose of individual voir dire in a high-profile case such as this is to ascertain what content the jurors have read and what they think they know about the case. The First Circuit's well-reasoned opinion in Tsarnaev, currently pending before the U.S. Supreme Court explains why. It is insufficient simply to ask the jurors if they think they can be fair even after seeing media about the case. See, e.g., United States v. Tsarnaev, 968 F.3d 24, (1st Cir. 2020) (failure to ask each juror to identify what content they had already read about the case and to identify what they already thought they knew about the case grounds for reversal of death sentence), cert. granted, 141 S.Ct. 1683 (Mar. 22, 2021), oral argument scheduled (Oct. 13, 2021); Patriarca v. United States, 402 F.2d 314, 318 (1st Cir. 1968) (judge must elicit "the kind and degree" of each prospective juror's exposure to the case or the parties" if asked by counsel); Smith v. Phillips, 455 U.S. 209, 221-22 (1982) (O'Connor, concurring) (prospective juror "may have an interest in concealing [their] own bias" or "may be unaware of it").

Further, as in Tsarnaev decision, much of the information shared on the media about Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein is either inaccurate or inadmissible, or pertains to persons and charges not before this jury. 968 F.3d at 58 ("while the media (social, cable, internet, etc.) gave largely factual accounts, some of the coverage included inaccurate or inadmissible information — like the details of his un-Miranda-ized hospital interview and the opinions of public officials that he should die") (citation omitted). It also included a number of individuals' personal opinions regarding Ms. Maxwell's guilt.

Commented [A22]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to the next series of questions proposed by the defendant that are in green color font. The Government objects on the grounds that these questions would not provide a basis for a for-cause challenge and ask jurors to express opinions based on media coverage. If jurors have had reactions to media coverage, questions about their ability to be fair and impartial will address any questions about their ability to serve as jurors. The proposed questions inappropriately ask jurors to deliberate based on media reporting.

Commented [A23R22]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: The defense incorporates by reference her response to the Government's objection to her "media" related questions and the case law cited therein.

Commented [A25]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to the next series of questions proposed by the defendant that are in green color font. The Government objects on the grounds that these questions are inappropriate, argumentative, confusing, and excessively detailed. The defendant's proposed questions are not streamlined in accordance with the Court's Order. The Government submits that its proposed questions ask the jurors what is necessary on the subject but is not as unduly burdensome as the defendant's proposal.

Commented [A26R25]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: Juror's personal experiences (directly or indirectly through family members and close friends) with sexual misconduct has significant potential to bias their opinions towards Ms. Maxwell based on the allegations and evidence in this case. The privacy of a questionnaire affords an opportunity to share these biases confidentially and candidly and best allow the parties to identify who cannot be a fair juror in this case or allows the Court to decide whether individual questioning of that juror is appropriate, based on the sensitive nature of the content of the questions.

Commented [A28]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The defendant has proposed additional questions in this section in addition to the questions proposed below on consent. The additional questions proposed by the defendant are duplicative, unnecessarily burdensome, and overly detailed. In addition, questions about experience with mental health issues are not designed to screen for bias and are not appropriate for inclusion in a written questionnaire.

Commented [A29R28]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: The defense-proposed questions are designed to identify individuals whose training, education and employment may cause the juror to follow their own independent knowledge and not follow the evidence actually presented at trial, or may reveal biases in favor of the Government.

Commented [A30]: GOVERNMENT OBJECTION: The Government objects to the questions proposed by the defendant in the "Closing Questions" section. The Government does not believe these questions should be included in the written questionnaire because these questions will not provide a basis for a for-cause challenge. Some of the questions proposed by the defendant are duplicative of prior questions. Many of the questions are inappropriate, argumentative, confusing, and excessively detailed.

Commented [A31R30]: DEFENDANT RESPONSE: The questions are designed to identify persons for whom a for-cause challenge may be sustained by this Court. The Government has not identified any particular question that is "inappropriate, argumentative, confusing, and excessively detailed," nor have they proposed limiting language that would cure any such problem.
